Our Lady of Victory's "Simbang Gabi," a popular Philippine tradition - Dec. 20 starting at 5:00 p.m.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov 22 - The Filipino community and OLV parishioners will sponsor its second annual "Simbang Gabi" to be held at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 20, 2008, with OLV Pastor Father David Werning concelebrating with visiting Philippine priest, Father Jaime Noel Deslate.

Sponsored by the Philippine Community of OLV and Our Lady of Victory Parish, the "Simbang Gabi" is open to all interested parties. After the OLV "Simbang Gabi," a potluck dinner, open to all, will be held at the Hess Auditorium of OLV.

Invited to the Simbang Gabi are Philippine Embassy's employees and their families; Past TOFA Awardees (Twenty Outstanding Filipinos Abroad) and their families; prominent Filipino leaders and their families; and various officers and members of several Filipino prayer groups and their families.

The "Simbang Gabi" is a popular Philippine tradition will start December 15 and ends on December 23 in celebrating Christmas and of the coming of the birth of Jesus Christ. Known as the "Misa de Gallo" (Rooster's Mass), it is called "Simbang Gabi" or "Night Mass", a very important Filipino Christmas tradition. It is considered as the nine-day novena by the Catholic faithfuls. In the Philippines, in some parishes, the masses begin as early as five in the morning; others start in the late afternoon or in the evening. Completing the nine-day novena is a manifestation of the Catholic faith to most devotees.

The "Simbang Gabi" complete schedules of the Holy Mass which are all held at the District of Columbia start Dec. 15, 2008, Monday at Church of Annunciation; Dec. 16, Tuesday, St. Anne's Catholic Church; Dec. 17, Wednesday, St. Matthews Cathedral; Dec. 18, Thursday, St. Stephen's Catholic Church; Dec. 19, Friday, Epiphany Catholic Church; Dec. 20, Saturday, Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church; Dec. 21, Sunday, Shrine of the Blessed Sacrament; Dec. 22, Monday, Nativity/ St. Dominic Church; Dec. 23, Tuesday, St. Margaret of Scotland Catholic Church. #
