

Recent Visitors to the Nation's Capital
WASHINGTON, D.C.
Ambassador Lauro L. Baja and his wife, Norma Castro Baja

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 21 - His Excellency, Ambassador Lauro L. Baja (right), currently Philippine Special Envoy, former Undersecretary of the Philippine Department of Foreign Affairs, and until last year was Permanent Philippine Ambassador to the United Nations in New York where he was appointed as designated President of the prestigious U.N. Security Council not once, but twice, was in the Nation's Capital recently on his way to New York and various areas visiting Filipinos overseas on personal business. Photo was take in front of the temporary official residence of the Philippine Ambassador to the United States, His Excellency, Willy Gaa (second from right). In the photo from right: Ambassador Baja; Dr. Luz Conception a physician from Texas and a sister of Mrs. Gaa; Mrs. Norma Castro Baja; Mrs. Linda Gaa; Mrs. Aida Mendoza; Ambassador Willy Gaa, and Nonoy Mendoza of the FILIPINO IMAGE Magazine and the PINOY GLOBAL ONLINE NEWS (PGON). #