PinoyGlobal appoints Daguiso and Sison news representatives for Eastern Seaboard

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 2 (PinoyGlobal) - Two professional camera and videographers/camera personnel are the new additions to gather news items for the PinoyGlobal Online News (PGON) and the FILIPINO IMAGE Magazine (FILIM), announced this week by the management of PGON and FILIM.

Appointed are Eldefonso "June" Daguiso as Authorized Representative - Internet Video Production Manager; and Ric Sison as Authorized Representative - Internet Video-Camera Production.

The two will be assigned to cover the Metropolitan Washington DC region as well as several major cities in the Eastern Seaboard.

"I have just accepted a proposed agreements with ABS-CBN of Manila for them to pick up articles from our site for abs-cbnnews.com and vice versa last Saturday, June 28, 2008. So our planned expansions of global news coverage is very timely," explained Nonoy Mendoza, editor and publisher of FILIM and PGON both based in Washington, D.C.

June Daguiso was born in Manila, Philippines. He attended five years of college at the University of East Manila before immigrating to the United States in 1979. Upon his arrival he began working at the Hilton Hotel in Washington D.C. where he was employed until 1985. While working at the Hilton June gained a full-time position as a research technician at one of the biggest law firms in Washington, D. C. Hogan & Hartson where he continues to work today.

June taught the martial arts from 1989 to 2000. He earned a 4th degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do and a 1st degree in Shotokan. He competed in national karate tournaments such as the US Open, Battle of Baltimore and Evarhart tournament and was top 20 in the US both in fighting and forms. June is also a received a license for massage therapy at the Potomac Massage Institute of Washington D.C. As a certified Field Technician for DCTV June gained a great deal of film production experience before beginning his own film production company MJD Productions, LLC.

June dived into the business of shooting feature films in late 2006 after a short stint as an actor and stunts/fighter choreographer for various independent films in the Washington, D.C. area. June has written 5 feature films and 2 short films and finished his first feature film entitled Full Circle. He also produced, directed and played the main role.
