Twenty Outstanding Filipinos Abroad - 2008 Awardee

Jun Anthony V. Quion, MD, FACC

"It is a useless life that is not consecrated to a great ideal. It is like a stone wasted on the field without becoming a part of any edifice." – Jose Rizal

MAN OF SUBSTANCE

Jun was born in Mary Johnston Hospital in Tondo Manila and spent most of his childhood years in Balut Tondo. His family moved to BF Homes Paranaque, just before he entered high school. His formative life with the Dominican friars of Colegio de San Juan de Letran and later with the Jesuit priests of Ateneo de Manila University is notable for consistent academic achievement awards. Described by one of his science professors at University of the Philippines as Jose Rizal's "firefly in search of the light", he graduated magna cum laude with bachelor of science degree in Zoology. He continued his medical studies at the University of the Philippines College of Medicine and graduated as one of the top in his class and the Philippine Medical Boards. Not one to rest on his academic laurels, he was active member of the Phi Kappa Mu Fraternity. Even then, he volunteered in medical missions and was at EDSA during first EDSA revolution in the volunteer medical brigade.

After graduation from medical school, Jun left for the United States where his family immigrated in 1990. He was accepted in the competitive internal medicine residency program of the Baylor College of Medicine in Houston Texas. There he spent another year in research on Lipids and Atherosclerosis, under the preeminent Dr. Antonio Gotto. He pursued further training in Cardiovascular Medicine and Interventional Cardiology at the University of Connecticut. He currently practices at the Inova Heart and Vascular Institute in Fairfax Virginia

After 11 years of courtship, he married his college sweetheart, Nathalie Bernabe, with whom he has 4 sons, Justin, Alexander, Christopher, Patrick and one daughter, Katherine.

MAN OF VISION

Despite a busy medical career and an active family life, Jun has made it a priority to give back to the community. He has served in various functions for the Philippine Medical Association, Ateneo de Manila Alumni Association and most significantly as the President of the local chapter of the University of the Philippines Alumni Association. Under his dynamic leadership, the alumni association grew, attracted younger members and more than doubled its fundraising. He focused on creating endowment funds for junior faculty development for the university.

Subsequently, UPAADCMDVA remains a prominent socio civic organization in the Metropolitan DC area.

MAN OF INTEGRITY

As a leader, he is known for his transparency, his emphasis on the common good and the adherence to principles. The clarity and singularity of purpose are also trademarks. What is also noteworthy is his ability to carry this out with ease, wit and zest. Known to be vocal about his views, he takes a stand on issues, including advocating for Filipino physicians in the Desperate Housewives debacle.

MAN FOR OTHERS

A supportive husband, protective father, dutiful son, dependable friend and brother, Jun is known to always lend a helping hand. He continues to volunteer in health fairs, medical missions and health education campaigns. A compassionate physician, he is known to visit patients on his day off to share his "Quionisms" and even cheer them with his own brand of humor.
